Behind the scenes at the RCMP – tell us about your work

This year, USJE plans to showcase the work of USJE's members at the RCMP who are the operational backbone and play a crucial role in keeping Canadians safe.

Over the next few months, USJE representatives will be visiting RCMP sites across Canada to speak with members. We're looking for volunteers who are willing to share their stories on video, audio, or in an article with a profile photo.

Protect public safety personnel: contact your MP

USJE is seeking all party support for the proposed changes to GECA, as quickly as possible, so that the thousands of federal public safety personnel who keep Canadians safe everyday are no longer left behind to suffer in silence when they develop an occupational stress injury.

Research Participants Needed for Research on the Mental Health and Wellbeing Experiences of Legal Support Staff

USJE is inviting legal assistants, clerks, and support staff from Justice Canada and PPSC to take part in a study about the stress they experience on the job. By participating in a one-hour interview, employees will help USJE advocate for improved mental health supports, reduced workloads and better compensation.
