USJE recognizes World Mental Health Day on Parliament Hill on October 8–9 in Ottawa

To mark World Mental Health Day and highlight USJE's efforts to ensure that more federal public safety personnel have access to Worker's Compensation for mental health related workplace injuries, USJE hosted a special reception on Parliament Hill on Wednesday, October 8 in recognition of the day (held internationally on October 10). Because most MPs return to their ridings on Thursday evenings, USJE hosted its reception on Wednesday, October 8th to ensure that as many Parliamentarians as possible could attend.
